MARINE CHAMBER ORCHESTRA

SUMMER SERIES

The Marine Chamber Orchestra performs a variety of both popular and classical selections, including compositions for string orchestra. Lauded by critics for their dramatic and confident performances, the chamber orchestra is the ensemble most frequently featured at the White House.

The orchestra's summer concert series will include performances of works by such composers as Einojuhani Rautavaara, Felix Mendelssohn, and Béla Bartók. All concerts are free and no tickets are required. Free parking is available.

YOUNG CONDUCTOR/ COMPOSER MENTOR PROJECT CONCERT

7 PM ★ TUESDAY, JUNE 16

John Philip Sousa Band Hall
Marine Barracks Annex
7th & K Streets, SE
Washington, DC
Free, no tickets required

This June, "The President's Own" United States Marine Band will serve as the ensemble-in-residence for the National Band Association's 2015 Young Composer/Conductor Mentor Project. The project is the only competition of its kind that allows young artists, ages 29 and under, to work with renowned mentors in their field free of charge and to collaborate with a world-class musical ensemble. Each year for the project, three young composers and three young conductors are chosen out of a pool of applicants from across the country. The 2015 project will culminate with a concert by the Marine Band of the three selected composers' works conducted by each of the young conductors.
