LETTER FROM AN EDUCATOR

The woodwind quintet that performed this morning for over 400 sixth and seventh-grade band students literally changed lives! They engaged our students, took time to answer their questions, and represented the Marines and our country in heartwarming fashion. ... This visit has made a huge impact not only on our students, but also our community. I am so proud of the work these dedicated service men and women are doing. Thank you for continuing to support this important work. As I tell my own students, "We need to go beyond the notes!" Clearly, this is what took place!!

of organizations that received the Marine Band's 2018 annual educational recording "To Make Us Proud: A Leonard Bernstein Tribute." In addition, thousands more have listened to the music on the Marine Band's YouTube channel.

The year 2018 would have marked Bernstein's 100th birthday, and this unique collection of music celebrates his legacy as one of the most talented and influential musicians in history.

There has never been an American artist like Leonard Bernstein, and there likely never will be again. I hope this collection of music will both illuminate his legacy and appropriately celebrate his monumental influence on so many other musicians and on our American artistic identity. Bernstein passionately wished for music to be a unifying force in our country and around the globe, and he came as close to achieving that ideal as any artist in our history. As we celebrate his singular contribution to our musical life, the words he set to the powerful music at the end of this recording may now be meant for him: Leonard Bernstein's gift to the nation and to the world was always destined 'to make us proud.'

SELF-PORTRAIT
I see myself as a curious, patient and empathetic person who sometimes lets a sarcastic sense of humor escape!

FAVORITE SAYING OR MOTTO
The secret of getting ahead is getting started. - Mark Twain

WALTER MITTY FANTASY
I think I might be living my Walter Mitty fantasy...

MOST MEMORABLE MOMENT IN BAND
Playing the slow movement of Dvořák's American string quartet with Yo-Yo Ma and President Obama looking on.

INSPIRATION
It might sound cliché, but my colleagues in the band are a constant source of inspiration to me.

FAVORITE FOOD
Homemade cheese from our goats and cow

BAD HABIT
Taking on too much

GREATEST ACCOMPLISHMENT
My two girls—they are 17 and 19 and I am so proud of the confident, capable women they've become!

BEST-KEPT SECRET
I've helped countless calves and goat kids into the world on our farm.

THREE THINGS ALWAYS IN YOUR REFRIGERATOR
Milk, yogurt and cheese!

MOST INFLUENTIAL TEACHER
After university and just before I joined the band, I studied with Ricardo Cyncynates, assistant Concertmaster of the National Symphony Orchestra, and learned how to practice effectively, prepare for an audition, and cultivate my own sound. Later I sat in on many lessons when my daughter studied with him and still consider him to be one of the best violin pedagogues of our time.

COMMENTS FROM THE STATE FUNERAL

Beautiful selections for this program, superb playing, excellent conducting and how nice to have a Joint Forces Chorus singing with Ronan Tynan and Michael W. Smith and the National Cathedral Singers and outstanding organist!

Truly a memorable, long-remembered program! Thank you!

Your performance today was simply beautiful. Thank you for your artistry and service!

My daughter watched the service in her class at the high school. ... Such a touching service.

Words cannot even begin to describe the experience of listening to you perform yesterday. All I can say is thank you.

Thank you Marine band for providing an important part of President Bush’s service. It was lovely.

This is a great remembrance of not just a distinguished President but also an amazing American musical legacy.

OVERHEARD ON THE WEB

Thank you all for the wonderful Semper high-Fidelity! Marvelous musicianship and wonderful selection of tunes! OohRah from an honorary sis! • I got to hear “The President’s Own” tonight in Lincoln, NE. WOW! Every piece just sparkled! • Hey Devil Dogs, thank you for a great performance this evening at Ball State University. My 6 year old Daughter was dancing in the seating while you were playing the Marches. Ooh Rah! • A gentleman behind me commented, “That’s how it should always sound” when Irish tune was complete. Those around who heard him agreed emphatically. • “The Presidents Own” United States Marine Band just makes me proud to be a musician • Two hours of absolute “Band Bliss.” • I honestly don’t remember breathing during “Irish Tune from County Derry” • It does a heart good to see an auditorium filled to capacity for wind band music. I can’t wait for Monday rehearsals with my bands! BRAVO! • It brought a lump to my throat when you all stood for the Marines’ Hymn. • What struck me most was that there were no Democrats and no Republicans there that night. There were only Americans applauding their national anthem, their excellent Marine band, and their veterans. • This visit has made a huge impact not only on our students, but also our community. I am so proud of the work these dedicated service men and women are doing. • Words cannot even begin to describe the experience of listening to you perform yesterday. All I can say is thank you. • What a wonderful reprieve from the angst of the current events in DC to have a shot of pride and patriotism from the outstanding opening of your fall concert tour in Lincoln, Nebraska. I sat beside two people from Tajikistan, enthusiastically cheering! • The best band in the land, and the best takes on some true classics. • Loved the clarity, and the dynamics were incredible. The band’s unity is unsurpassed. • WOW, WOW, WOW!!! My family and I attended your concert tonight, and we were completely blown away by the performance. • Totally unforgettable experience. #unbelievable #bandnerdsforever
